Brookfield Court Springfield Road
Southborough Tunbridge Wells

Property Description

Positioned on the ground floor of this sought-after development in central Southborough is this well-presented two double bedroom retirement apartment. The property features a generous entrance hall with excellent built-in storage, leading through to a bright and spacious dual-aspect sitting/dining room leading to the patio area.

Glazed double doors open to the kitchen, fitted with a range of units and integrated hob and oven, along with space for both a fridge and washing machine.

The principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes with mirrored sliding doors, while the second double bedroom offers flexibility as an additional reception room, study, or guest bedroom. A modern shower room completes the internal accommodation.

Brookfield Court has been thoughtfully designed for comfortable retirement living. Residents enjoy access to a welcoming communal lounge which hosts regular social activities, a large laundry room equipped with washing machines, tumble dryers and ironing facilities, and an internal bin store.

Attractive communal gardens surround the development, often tended by residents, providing peaceful seating areas to relax and enjoy the outdoors.

Residents must be aged 60 or over (or in the case of a couple, one aged 60+ and the other 55+). Additional benefits include residents' parking offered on a first-come, first-served basis, and the reassurance of an on-site property manager.
