Two built-in Siemens ovens are stacked vertically. The top oven has a digital display showing 11:03, and the bottom oven has a digital display showing 11:04. Both ovens have glass doors and black frames.

An open wooden shelf is mounted above the countertop, containing a white teapot, several mugs, a blue water filter pitcher, and some books.

The countertop area includes a white sink with a black faucet, a black toaster, a silver kettle, a coffee grinder, and a coffee maker. A black range hood is visible above the countertop on the left side.

The lower cabinets and drawers are white with black horizontal handles. The upper cabinets are white with black vertical handles. The floor is made of grey square tiles.

Property Description

This delightful, sun-drenched ground floor apartment is located in a charming circa 1875 building and boasts soaring 9-foot (2.82 metre) ceilings and a generous 1,011 square feet (94 sqm) of living space. Inside, you'll find two spacious bedrooms, each with its own large window offering serene garden views, along with built-in wardrobes for ample storage. The inviting lounge room also enjoys leafy views through a wide window, creating a calm and relaxing atmosphere.

A separate study provides a quiet and functional workspace, while the modern kitchen is fully equipped with two ovens, a built-in fridge-freezer, dishwasher, electric cooktop, built-in washing machine, and separate dryer. There is also a designated space for a dining table with seating for four. The contemporary bathroom features a unique wall heater, a large walk-in shower, and a wall-mounted toilet.

A wide hallway, fitted with spotlights ideal for displaying artworks, adds to the apartment's charm. Additional storage is available in a separate hall cupboard, which houses a state-of-the-art hot water system that also functions as a drying cabinet.

Elegant lighting includes chandeliers in the lounge and bedrooms, complemented by a large LED light in the kitchen. The entire apartment was comprehensively remodelled five years ago in collaboration with an interior designer and the experienced owner. Thoughtful upgrades include wallpapered walls, upholstered bedroom cabinets and headboards, new ceiling roses and coving, and a carefully curated palette of designer paint colours throughout. Both floors and ceilings were completely rebuilt, and the main floors are finished with wool carpet laid seamlessly, with no visible joints.

Each room is equipped with new central heating radiators, and all windows feature Luxaflex helicoil blinds. The master bedroom also includes curtains, and the windows have a privacy tint for added discretion. Some furnishings may be included, as the current owner is relocating overseas.

Situated within Brompton Court, a peaceful retirement village comprising 65 owner-occupied apartments, Apartment 8 is one of the largest and most desirable. The community spans several attractive buildings with secure gates, a private car park, an on-site restaurant, a community chapel used for events and gatherings, spacious communal halls, and beautifully landscaped walking paths. The complex is professionally staffed and managed, with 24-hour emergency call buttons in each apartment and a warm, supportive environment throughout.

Being in this ideal location you are within easy access to Bournemouth town centre with a wide range of local shops, cafes, restaurants and Bournemouth beach.
