"Consistently providing outstanding service to our clients"

Asking Price £300,000

The Property

A characterful three-bedroom terraced home, formerly a silk factory and rich in local history, beautifully refurbished throughout and set within walking distance of Mildenhall town centre. Offering driveway parking, a generous rear garden, an en-suite main bedroom and the benefit of Council Tax Band A for lower bills, this is a charming and practical home with story, style and everyday convenience.

The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, a welcoming lounge with real wood flooring and a recessed multi-fuel burner, and a superb kitchen/dining room fitted with a high-specification range of units and integrated appliances. These include a fridge/freezer, dishwasher, induction five-ring hob, combination microwave oven and single oven, along with a butler-style sink positioned to the rear aspect. A useful utility room provides further storage, an inset sink and access to the rear garden, alongside a cloakroom/WC.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms, both benefiting from bespoke fitted wardrobes, together with a stylish family bathroom comprising a bath, vanity basin, WC and separate corner shower. The second floor has been converted to create an impressive main bedroom suite, complete with fitted wardrobes, dormer window and en-suite shower room.

Further benefits include UPVC double glazing, electric dry heating, a full re-wire and re-plumb completed during the refurbishment, renewed roof timbers and tiles, updated kitchen and bathrooms, quality flooring throughout, plus CAT 5 cabling hard-wired to all bedrooms, the lounge and rear garden shed.
