IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and the ground floor has a simple, practical flow, with a generous kitchen/diner at the front and a welcoming reception room to the rear. The reception feels calm and comfortable, with pale walls, and a large window drawing in natural light.

The kitchen/diner is well arranged for day-to-day living, with wooden cabinetry, tiled flooring and space for a dining table. From the reception room, you can step straight out to the private rear garden, which has a lovely tucked-away feel and a south-west facing aspect for afternoon and early evening light. A separate WC adds extra convenience on this floor.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The two larger bedrooms are well proportioned, while the third would work neatly as a nursery, guest room or home office. Soft neutral tones and carpeted flooring keep the upper floor feeling settled and easy to make your own.

WHAT ELSE?

Stepney Green station is just a short walk away, giving you easy connections across the city.

Mile End Park is close by for open green space, canal-side walks and weekend fresh air.

Stepney City Farm and Genesis Cinema are both nearby, adding a real sense of local character to the area.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home living in Hackney, even though I am originally from Greece. You can be yourself, wear what you like and always feel welcome. The multicultural spirit shines through in the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee and Michelin star dining to parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway Market are full of community energy, great food and local makers. The marshes are ideal for dog walks, and nearby you can stop by the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Homes range from Victorian and Georgian houses to red brick local authority blocks and modern developments with shared roof terraces. I have truly found my place in Hackney, and it holds a special spot in my heart".
