The property: This charming four bedroom mid terrace house beautifully combines period character with generous living space. Retaining a wealth of original features, the property boasts impressive high ceilings, elegant bay windows with views across the sea, stripped wooden doors, traditional wooden floorboards and attractive exposed brick walls, creating a distinctive blend of character and warmth throughout. Arranged over four floors the family home offers versatile accommodation for all types of families.

The location: Priory Road is ideally located in Hastings, offering easy access to both the historic Old Town and the vibrant town centre. Hastings railway station is within convenient reach, providing connections to London and beyond. The property is also close to the popular West Hill, with its beautiful views, historic castle and scenic walks. With local shops, cafés, restaurants, beaches and other amenities nearby, Priory Road is a great base for enjoying all that Hastings has to offer.
