Sam says:

“This is a wonderful three-bedroom detached home and it’s easy to see why it works so well for family life. As soon as you walk in, you’re greeted by a bright, spacious hallway that instantly feels welcoming, with a handy guest WC, perfect when you’ve got visitors!

The living room is one of my favourite spots; it’s comfy, cosy, and flooded with natural light thanks to two windows, making it a lovely place to relax. The kitchen is sleek and glossy, with plenty of room for a family dining table. The doors leading straight out to the garden are brilliant in the warmer months and really help blend indoor and outdoor living.

Upstairs, all three bedrooms are generously sized, so there’s plenty of space as the family grows. The main bedroom feels like a real retreat, with fitted sliding wardrobes and its own en-suite. The family bathroom is modern and neutral, with a shower over the bath — practical, stylish, and ideal for busy family routines.

The garden really is the wow factor for me. Because of its position, there are no adjoining gardens at all, giving you privacy, and it enjoys sunshine all throughout the day. The house sits on a corner plot, which to me is a huge bonus.

There’s also side access straight from the garden to the garage, along with parking for two to three cars, which makes everyday life and family logistics so much easier.

Overall, this is a fantastic family home in a sought-after location, close to village amenities, schools, and everything you need for day-to-day family life.”

A message from the seller:

"17 Heathfield Avenue has been a truly special home for our family and the setting for many happy memories. From the start, it has offered comfort, privacy and a wonderful sense of space, making everyday family life feel both easy and settled. When we first viewed the property, what particularly appealed to us was the opportunity to own a detached three-bedroom home on this sought-after estate — something not often available here and which gives the house a distinct position within the development. The estate enjoys a strong reputation and a genuine community feel, with well-regarded schools, local shops, welcoming pubs and lovely walks all close by. As our family grows, we're moving to our next home within the same village — which says everything about how much we value living here. We look forward to the next owners enjoying this home and community as much as we have."
