

£180,000

Rye Hill, Sudbury

THE PROPERTY

Offered with no onward chain, this two bedroom bungalow provides a well-balanced and practical layout throughout.

A central hallway gives access to all rooms and includes two useful storage cupboards, ideal for coats, linens and everyday essentials.

To the rear of the property are the living room and kitchen. The living room is a comfortable, light-filled space with a rear-facing window, creating a pleasant area to relax or entertain. The kitchen offers a range of wall and base units with ample worktop space, along with integrated appliances including a double oven, hob and extractor. There is also space for dining, making it a sociable and functional part of the home.

Both bedrooms are located at the front of the bungalow and are generous double rooms, providing excellent space and versatility. They can comfortably serve as a principal bedroom and guest room, or alternatively one could be utilised as a home office if required.

Completing the accommodation is a modern shower room fitted with a wash hand basin, WC and large shower, all presented in a contemporary style.

Externally, the property benefits from one allocated parking space to the front.

THE LOCATION

Sudbury offers a wide range of everyday amenities, with a mix of independent shops and national retailers, as well as popular Thursday and Saturday markets. The town benefits from a variety of restaurants, cafés and traditional pubs.

Rich in history, Sudbury is home to Gainsborough's House and St Peter's Church, while the Quay Theatre provides regular performances and events. The surrounding countryside and the River Stour offer scenic walking and cycling routes, alongside local parks and green spaces.

The town provides a selection of schooling, healthcare facilities and a train station with connections to London Liverpool Street. Nearby Long Melford, Bury St Edmunds, Colchester and Ipswich further expand the range of shopping, leisure and cultural amenities available.
