Hurst are delighted to offer to the market this 1950's three bedroom, detached family home that has been massively improved upon by its present owners and is offered in good condition throughout. This superb family home could lend itself to significant expansion to the side and rear of the property, subject to obtaining the relevant planning permission.

Situated in a quiet and elevated position in this sought-after cul-de-sac in the Downley area of High Wycombe, with stunning views across to West Wycombe and beyond, this area gives a real sense of being in the countryside, whilst retaining all the conveniences that the town has to offer. There are an abundance of walks on the doorstep, as well as superb schools and other local amenities, within easy reach of this beautiful home.

The accommodation includes: entrance hallway, utility room with door to side access, fitted kitchen, lounge, dining room, three good-sized bedrooms and family bathroom. The property also benefits from UPVC double glazing, gas central heating, driveway parking, fantastic views across the valley, and an enclosed rear garden which feels extremely secluded and is in excess of 100ft in length and provides various areas including lawn and gravel areas that are perfect for entertaining. An early and internal viewing is highly recommended.
