ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully renovated four-bedroom terraced house, enviably positioned just moments from the River Thames in the Mortlake. Extending across four floors, this impressive family home offers a generous and versatile layout, combining elegant proportions with a contemporary finish and excellent storage throughout.

The lower ground floor is centred around the main living and entertaining space. A generous reception room provides a comfortable setting for relaxing and family gatherings, while the impressive kitchen and dining area to the rear has been finished to a high standard and features a comprehensive range of integrated appliances.
