Situated in the heart of the well serviced village of Asfordby is this two bedroom, mid terrace, period property having the benefit of uPVC double glazing and gas central heating. Offering an ideal opportunity for the first time buyer or investor and having been recently re-painted with neutral decoration throughout and new fitted carpet, the well-presented accommodation comprises in brief, lounge, dining room, kitchen and utility room with stairs rising to two good sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the rear of the property is a gate providing access to a right of way over the neighbouring property and a courtyard garden designed for low maintenance with timber panel fencing to the boundaries.

Accessed via a double glazed front door into the lounge with a double glazed window to the front aspect, an inset log burner with a tiled hearth and feature brick surround, TV point and pine door through to the dining room. A further reception room with a double-glazed window to the rear aspect, fireplace with a wooden surround, door to stairs rising to the first-floor landing and door leading into the galley style kitchen. Having a range of units, complementary worktops, sink and drainer, integrated eye level double oven and gas hob with an extractor hood above, dishwasher, wood laminate flooring, two windows to the side aspect and door to a utility room housing the wall mounted Worcester central heating boiler, space and plumbing for a washing machine and fridge freezer and door leading to the rear courtyard garden.

Asfordby is approximately three miles West of Melton Mowbray and has many local amenities including a Primary School and Pre-School, Doctor's Surgery, Co-op convenience store, a Public House and Chemist to name a few with an Indian Restaurant, fish and chip shop and take-aways. The village is also well placed for easy access to Loughborough and Leicester.
