A dream equestrian escape wrapped in ten acres of pure countryside calm.

Ten acres, multiple outbuildings and a home that feels like a warm embrace.
Live the equestrian life you've always imagined — right here at Bridgend.

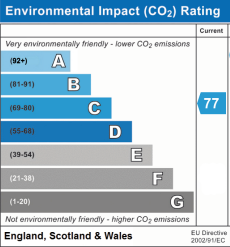

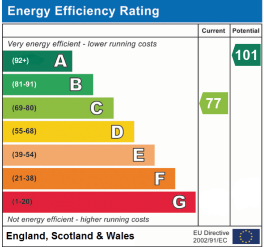

Low & Partners is delighted to bring to the market Bridgend, Forglen, Turriff — an immaculate three-bedroom equestrian bungalow set within approximately ten acres of beautifully maintained land. Offering exceptional privacy, extensive outbuildings and superb equestrian facilities, this remarkable lifestyle property is presented in walk-in condition and would suit a wide range of buyers seeking space, tranquillity and rural living at its finest.

The property is approached via a secure gated driveway, leading to generous parking and a peaceful setting surrounded by open countryside. A pathway guides you to the welcoming vestibule, a bright entrance area with space for outerwear and a partially glazed door that opens into the main hallway.

The central lobby is spacious and inviting, providing access to all accommodation. Two large cupboards offer excellent storage, one housing the water tank and the other fitted with shelving and hanging space. An attic hatch completes this practical area.

The heart of the home is the impressive open-plan lounge, kitchen and dining space — a wonderfully large and versatile room with dual-aspect windows that fill the interior with natural light and
