IVY COTTAGE, APPLETREEHALL, HAWICK, TD9 8PW

OFFERS AROUND £145,000

Early viewing is recommended of this traditional stone built semi detached cottage located in the quaint hamlet of Appletreehall situated around 2 miles to the North of Hawick. In need of some cosmetic upgrading, the accommodation is arranged over two floors and has a surprisingly generous garden to the side and rear (south west facing) and a timber garage alongside various outbuildings. The adjacent property, Roadside Cottage, is also listed for sale through the same vendor and would offer a prospective purchaser the opportunity to acquire both properties and potentially convert to one larger dwelling subject to obtaining the relevant planning documents.

The property is entered from the front into a small hallway which provides access through to the main bedroom and also the lounge. Stairs lead up to the first floor from here. The bedroom is situated to the front and has a double glazed window and is decorated in shades of purple. The lounge, which has pleasant wooden ceiling beams as a feature, also has a wood burning stove as a focal point and provides access through to the back hallway where the shower room and kitchen are located. The shower room is situated at the back of the property and comprises a three piece suite of shower enclosure, WC and wash hand basin and would benefit from upgrading. The kitchen has a range of timber floor and wall mounted units in situ with a stainless steel sink, window to the rear and space for various white goods.

The first floor is accessed via a staircase from the front hallway and provides access to the two attic rooms which could be used for a variety of purposes.

Externally to the property there is a generous rear and side garden with patio and lawn. There are various outbuildings such as log store and kennels and there is an attractive well. There are solar panels in situ in the garden and there is a chipped drive and timber garage.
