

Jupp Road West, London E15
£440,000 Leasehold

Description

This two-bedroom apartment at Atelier Point spans approximately 754 square feet and features a private balcony accessible from both bedrooms and the living room, a contemporary bathroom, and lift access throughout the building. Residents enjoy a communal roof terrace equipped with seating areas and a children's play space, while underground parking is available via separate negotiation.

The apartment is located in Stratford, one of East London's most transformed neighbourhoods where exceptional connectivity meets modern urban living. The development's position places residents moments from both Stratford Station's comprehensive transport hub and the expansive green spaces of Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, creating an ideal balance between city accessibility and outdoor recreation.

Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park stretches across 560 acres, offering world-class sporting facilities, waterways, woodlands, and open meadows. The park's venues host international events while providing residents with swimming pools, cycling tracks, and walking trails. East Bank's cultural quarter brings world-renowned institutions including the BBC, Sadler's Wells East, and UCL to the area, enriching the local landscape with arts, education, and innovation.
