THE PROPERTY

This desirable semi-detached home has been thoughtfully extended to create spacious and versatile accommodation, presented to a high standard.

The heart of the home is the impressive kitchen/dining room, providing a generous contemporary space for everyday family living and entertaining. A separate utility room adds practicality, while the sitting room offers a comfortable retreat.

The former garage has been professionally converted to create a treatment room, offering excellent flexibility for a home business, office, studio or hobbies room, depending on an individual's requirements.

The property provides three bedrooms together with a ground floor bathroom, creating a practical layout suitable for a variety of purchasers.

OUTSIDE

There are both front and rear gardens. The front garden in particular is a hugely impressive landscaped modern space. In addition there is off-road parking for several cars.

SITUATION

The property lies on the South Western edge of the town, with easy access to all the facilities. Bridport is a bustling and vibrant market town which has a history of rope making and is now a gateway to the Jurassic, World Heritage coastline at nearby West Bay. It has a variety of independent shops, supermarkets, public houses and restaurants catering for a range of tastes and excellent arts and music events. Bridport is conveniently placed for Dorchester and Weymouth to the east and Axminster to the west. Walking, water sports and riding opportunities are plentiful in the area. Communication links are good with road links along the A35 and mainline stations at Maiden Newton, Dorchester, Axminster and Crewkerne.
