Maisonette by name. House vibes by nature.

Set in Seabrooke Rise, this three bedroom split-level home is one of those properties that pleasantly surprises you the moment you step inside, shut the front door and realise just how much space you've got to play with.

Spread across two floors, the ground floor welcomes you with an inviting entrance hallway, a nicely sized kitchen and a very handy WC. Then comes the star of the show — a fantastic lounge/diner with plenty of room for lazy Sundays, dinner with friends and everything in between. Throw open the doors and you've got direct access to your very own rear garden. Morning coffee, summer BBQs or simply somewhere to escape with a good book — the choice is yours.

Head upstairs and you'll find three genuinely good-sized bedrooms, so there's no awkward "technically a bedroom" conversation needed here, along with a beautiful family bathroom that finishes the first floor off perfectly.

There's also a long lease of approximately 101 years, giving the next owner plenty of long-term peace of mind.

And the location? Rather convenient. Grays train station is approximately 0.2 miles away, while the town centre is just a short stroll from your front door. Commuters, you can probably hit snooze one more time.

Three bedrooms. Two floors. Your own garden. A station practically on the doorstep.

It may say maisonette on the paperwork, but once you're inside, it feels very much like home.
