Situated within one of the area's most sought-after and well-established residential locations, this recently fully refurbished property occupies a generous and mature plot on the outskirts of the thriving village of Kirton. The village itself offers a strong sense of community and an excellent range of amenities including a doctor's surgery, veterinary surgery, independent shops, eateries and schooling for all age groups, making it a particularly desirable place to live.

This attractive four-bedroom detached home stands on an impressive plot of approximately one third of an acre, with beautifully well stocked established gardens that are fully enclosed, private and ideal for both children and pets. The south-facing rear garden provides a wonderful outdoor space and enjoys a high degree of privacy, perfectly complementing the home's family-friendly credentials.

The property has recently undergone a comprehensive refurbishment, including a thoughtful reconfiguration of the internal layout to better suit modern living. At the heart of the home is a superb open-plan living kitchen, offering ample space for cooking, dining and relaxing while enjoying uninterrupted views over the garden. A generous lounge features a Clearview wood-burning stove, creating a cosy yet light-filled living environment, which flows through to a large garden room, further enhancing the living space and making the most of the attractive garden outlook.

Upstairs, the accommodation continues to impress with four incredibly well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a stylish principal bedroom with a modern en-suite, alongside a newly fitted family bathroom and separate WC.

A practical home to suit country life, the property also benefits from both a boot room and a utility room fully fitted with useful cupboard space, plus an attached double garage.

Offered to the market with the significant advantage of no onward chain, this beautifully presented home represents an ideal opportunity for families seeking space, privacy and village living in an attractive and highly regarded location.
