Ballmorlich Cottage is a characterful traditional home enjoying an exceptional rural position beside the Bridge of Avon and the River Avon, just outside Tomintoul and within the Cairngorms National Park. Set within sizeable, mature garden grounds and surrounded by woodland, open countryside and rolling hills, the cottage now seeks a new custodian and, while clearly loved over many years, would benefit from some updating and attention to realise its full potential. Entry is into a welcoming hall with timber staircase rising to the upper floor. The principal sitting room is a wonderfully atmospheric space, with a substantial exposed stone wall and fireplace creating a strong focal point, while a second reception/dining room provides further flexible living space and features its own fireplace with stove. The kitchen is fitted with a generous range of timber units and worktops, with ample room for a table and everyday dining, and there is also a useful utility with WC, wash hand basin and laundry facilities. Upstairs, the accommodation includes a spacious double bedroom with attractive outlooks across the surrounding greenery, together with additional flexible bedroom accommodation. Outside, the gardens are a particular feature, extending around the cottage with broad lawns, mature trees, established shrubs and informal planting creating a private, almost woodland setting. A substantial timber workshop/outbuilding provides excellent storage or hobby space. The setting is truly special, with the historic stone bridge and river close at hand and immediate access to some of the most beautiful scenery in the National Park. Tomintoul & Bridge Of Avon

Tomintoul is the Eastern Gateway to the Cairngorms National Park and has the reputation of being the highest village in the Highlands at 1165 ft (350m) centred round a picturesque square and situated near the Lecht Ski Resort Centre on the scenic route between Grantown on Spey and Royal Deeside. It is the largest village in the Glenlivet area supporting B&B's, a post office and general stores, art studios, craft, gift and malt whisky shops.

Tomintoul also has its own distillery, "the Tomintoul", which made the Guinness Book of Records for producing "The Largest Bottle of Scotch Whisky in The World" - at 105.3 litres. There are also three more stills, "The Tamnavulin", "The Braeval" and "The Glenlivet" within a few miles.

The area is surrounded by the mountain ranges of the Cromdales, the Ladder Hills and the Cairngorms, facilitating spectacular views, walks and other outdoor pursuits, including wildlife appreciation, salmon and trout fishing on the nearby River Avon, mountain biking on many trails and nearby bike Glenlivet and hill walking a plenty.

The nearby Lecht Ski Centre 2090 provides winter sports and mountain biking in the summer.

Transport Links

Located in the heart of the Highlands, Tomintoul offers a number of convenient travel options for local, regional, and international travel.

Road: Tomintoul is well-connected via road with the A939, a major scenic route running through Speyside, providing easy access to both Aberdeen to the east and Inverness to the north.

Air: The nearest airports are Inverness Airport (approximately 43 miles away) and Aberdeen International Airport (approximately 56 miles away), offering both domestic and international flights.

Rail: The nearest railway station is Aviemore (around 27 miles away), which is on the main line from Inverness to London, providing connections to major cities across the UK.

Public Transport: There are regular bus services that run through Glenlivet connecting it to neighbouring towns and villages.

For schooling, Tomintoul falls within the Moray Council area, which provides a comprehensive education system. Primary education is available at Tomintoul Primary School, a small but well-regarded school located right in Tomintoul. For secondary education, pupils typically attend Speyside High School in Aberlour, which is approximately 21 miles away and offers a broad curriculum.

For further education, the University of the Highlands and Islands offers a range of courses and has several campuses throughout the Highlands, with the nearest being in Elgin and Inverness. Other universities in Aberdeen and Dundee are available.
