

47 Sandiland Crescent

Hayes, BR2 7DP

£875,000 Freehold EPC: Band E

 Maguire Baylis

GUIDE PRICE £875,000 - £925,000 An exceptional opportunity to acquire this rarely available four-bedroom detached home, positioned on one of Hayes' most prestigious and sought-after roads. Offering generous proportions throughout, this distinguished family home combines elegant living space with outstanding potential to further enhance and extend (subject to the necessary planning permissions).

The property boasts a beautifully maintained south west facing flat rear garden, ideal for outdoor entertaining and family living, alongside the convenience of off-street parking, a garage, and a light-filled reception room overlooking the garden. There are four well proportioned bedrooms, a newly fitted modern family bathroom and a further downstairs shower room. The property has recently undergone extensive decorating throughout.

Perfectly suited to families, the home falls within the catchment area for the highly regarded Hayes Primary and Secondary Schools and is just a short stroll from Hayes Station and the charming local high street.

Hayes is an affluent and highly desirable suburban enclave, perfectly positioned between Bromley, West Wickham, and Coney Hall. Renowned for its leafy surroundings, village atmosphere, and excellent connectivity into Central London via Hayes Station, the area offers an enviable balance of tranquillity and convenience. Station Approach features an appealing collection of boutique cafés, restaurants, artisan shops, and everyday amenities, while nearby Old Hayes retains its characterful village charm. The area is further complemented by an abundance of green open spaces and an excellent selection of OFSTED-rated schools, making it one of South East London's most coveted family locations.
