Alma Road

Sale

Situated in a quiet spot in a charming cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Sale Town Centre, the property enjoys easy access to local shops and amenities just a short walk away. Also just a short stroll away are some beautiful outdoor spaces in De Quincy Park and Woodheys Park. The property also sits within easy reach of Timperley and Altrincham centres, and it benefits from great transport links with Timperley Metrolink Station in easy reach, and the A56 for those that drive leading to the M60, M56 and beyond.

The property itself comes beautifully presented throughout, with ample natural light highlighting the quality fittings and fixtures. The large living dining room is a great feature of the property, with a separate kitchen. Two good bedrooms offer flexibility and both are supplemented by the modern bathroom.

The apartment benefits from its own private entrance giving great privacy. The property also comes with off-road parking and a detached garage offering further parking and/or storage.
