Detached. Rarely available. Packed with potential. This is the bungalow you've been waiting for...

Perfectly positioned just a short stroll from Grays town centre and mainline station, this charming two-bedroom detached bungalow is proof that good things really do come in single-storey packages.

Step through the entrance porch and you'll find a spacious lounge/dining room that's just waiting for family gatherings, cosy movie nights or your next dinner party. Both double bedrooms are generously sized and full of character, complete with stylish feature wood panelling that adds warmth and personality. A well-appointed kitchen and sleek modern bathroom complete the impressive accommodation.

Outside is where the magic continues. The substantial rear garden is a blank canvas bursting with potential - whether you're dreaming of summer BBQs, a home office, a garden studio or even extending the property (subject to the necessary planning consents), the possibilities are endless. To the front, gated driveway parking means you'll never have to battle for a parking space again.

Rarely does a detached bungalow in such a convenient location become available, making this a fantastic opportunity for downsizers, first-time buyers, growing families and savvy investors alike.

Homes like this don't stay secret for long... so don't be the one saying, "I wish we'd booked that viewing!"
