

2 Glebe Cottages Lewes Road

Westmeston,

A three bedroom mid terrace cottage situated in Westmeston within close proximity to the picturesque Ditchling village, being located within the South Downs National Park, having both stunning views at front and rear of the South Downs and farm land views. Just one of a row of three houses the property is being sold with no ongoing chain making this an attractive proposition.

This two floor accommodation comprises of the following:

The ground floor has entrance with staircase rising to the first floor, a substantial living room with wood burner and stripped flooring, twin doors onto a conservatory which would be ideal as a separate dining facility with door onto rear garden. A kitchen with space for range oven, washing machine and fridge freezer, base units and eye level wall mounted units, stable door onto rear garden.

The first floor landing has a loft hatch, three bedrooms with built in cupboards, family bathroom with WC, wash hand basin, paneled bath with shower attachment.
