Location

The well-appointed village of Braunston sits on a hill above the A45 and at the historic junction of the Grand Union Canal and the Oxford Canal. The village offers a wide range of amenities, including several welcoming pubs (The Boathouse, The Admiral Nelson, The Old Plough, and The Wheatsheaf), a village shop with Post Office services, a fish and chip shop, hairdressers, a butchers, and a primary school. At the heart of the village stands All Saints' Church, often called the "Cathedral of the Canals." Its striking spire is a well-known landmark, visible from both road and canal, and draws many visitors. Nearby, Braunston Marina is a popular destination, renowned for its beauty and its vibrant boating community. The village benefits from excellent transport links, with strong road connections via the A45 and convenient rail services from nearby towns. Sitting on the Northamptonshire/Warwickshire border, Braunston combines rural charm with accessibility, making it a highly sought-after location.

Agents Note

Additional information about the property, including details of utility providers, is available upon request. Please contact the agent for further details. The rear driveway was blocked paved by the previous owner, however it's not officially in the properties title deed.

Ground Floor

Accessed via a composite front door, the hallway provides a practical entrance to the property, with stairs rising to the first floor and a further composite door leading to the rear garden. Original pine doors give access to the adjoining rooms, and there is a built-in coat cupboard. The cloakroom is fitted with a two-piece white suite comprising a low-level WC and wash hand basin with cupboard under. There is also an extractor fan and a cupboard housing the electric fuse box. The sitting room has a uPVC double glazed window to the front with shutter blinds, along with a radiator and a chimney breast with tiled hearth.

To the rear of the property is an open-plan kitchen/family/dining room with a uPVC double glazed window, French doors opening onto the garden, and an additional side window. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall, base and drawer units, along with integrated appliances including a built-in Neff oven, four-ring electric hob with extractor over, dishwasher and washing machine. There is space for a freestanding fridge/freezer. The room also features solid wood flooring, recessed spotlights and a radiator.

Stairs lead down to the cellar, which has a uPVC double glazed window to the side. A door opens into a tanked room suitable for storage or use as a home office, with laminated wood flooring. A further room has a rear aspect window, good head height and laminated flooring, and could be used as a playroom, hobby room or additional workspace. The property also benefits from central heating and hot water supplied from an air source heat pump.

First Floor

The first floor landing has a uPVC double glazed window to the rear, with original pine panelled doors leading to the adjoining bedrooms and bathroom.

The main bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and features a uPVC double glazed window with shutter blinds, along with a radiator. The second bedroom also faces the front and includes a uPVC double glazed window and radiator. Bedroom three overlooks the rear garden and has a uPVC double glazed window and radiator. The family bathroom has an obscure uPVC double glazed window to the rear and is fitted with a four-piece suite comprising a panelled bath with chrome mixer taps and shower attachment, pedestal wash hand basin, low-level WC and corner shower cubicle. The room is tiled to splashback areas and flooring, and also includes a radiator.

Outside

The rear garden is a generous size and well established, featuring a variety of trees and shrubs including a magnolia and apple blossom tree. A block paved patio sits directly adjacent to the property, with two steps leading up to a further seating area and a continuation of block paving forming a pathway to the end of the garden. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with a raised rockery and a timber summer house. Towards the rear there is a further lawned section, creating a pleasant and private outdoor space. At the end of the garden are the stables, currently used as a workshop. These are accessed via double opening timber doors and benefit from a pantiled roof, power and lighting, and windows to both the front and rear. Internally, the space is divided into two rooms and offers potential for conversion into further accommodation, subject to the necessary planning permissions. Leading towards the stables is a driveway area with an adjacent lawn and a variety of mature shrubs. To the front of the property, two steps lead up to the main entrance door.
