Situation

Middle Rasen itself is home to the 12th Century 'St Peter's Church', Middle Rasen Primary School which has gained a 'Good' rating from Ofsted, Nags Head Public House and locally owned and run Post Office / local shop. Middle Rasen really is a little gem of a village. Friendly & welcoming community spirit that really does feel like home. The neighbouring Market Town of Market Rasen is just a short drive away. Charles Dickens once described Market Rasen as 'the sleepest town in England' These days it is a bustling market town with a varied selection of friendly independent shops, regular markets and an abundance of places to eat and drink. Situated on the edge of the town, is the wonderful market Rasen Racecourse. This is a top national hunt course and attracts some of the best horses & jockeys in the country. It is well worth a visit whether you fancy a flutter or just want to experience the exciting atmosphere of a race day.
