Asthill Croft

CV3 6HL

Occupying a fantastic plot within the highly regarded Asthill Croft, this impressive four-bedroom detached residence offers an abundance of space, character and versatility, creating a superb family home in one of Coventry's most desirable residential settings. Asthill Croft itself is an established cul-de-sac characterised by substantial detached homes and is particularly well positioned for the railway station, War Memorial Park and the city centre.

From the moment you enter, there is a real sense of space. A welcoming entrance and generous hallway provide access to the principal ground-floor accommodation, with the distinctive curved architecture and bay windows adding plenty of individual character to the property.

There are two excellent reception rooms, giving a family considerable flexibility in how the house is used. The main lounge is a particularly generous space with an attractive bay window, while the second living room provides another superb reception area with doors opening towards the garden. Whether used as a formal sitting room, family room or dining space, having two substantial reception rooms makes this an exceptionally practical home for both everyday family life and entertaining.

Upstairs, the spacious landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom being particularly impressive. Its generous proportions and beautiful curved bay create a fantastic main bedroom with plenty of natural light. Three further bedrooms provide excellent family accommodation and are served by the first-floor family bathroom.

One of the home's biggest attractions is undoubtedly its fantastic plot. The generous outside space complements the scale of the house perfectly and gives the property the feeling of space and separation that buyers searching for a substantial detached family home often struggle to find. Combined with the large garage and impressive internal footprint, the plot may also offer exciting possibilities for a purchaser wishing to further enhance the property in the future, subject of course to the necessary planning permissions and consents.

With approximately 2,013 sq ft of accommodation shown on the floorplan, four bedrooms, two reception rooms, a large garage and a superb plot, this is a substantial and individual family residence in a location where detached homes are particularly sought after. Properties on Asthill Croft rarely change hands, adding further appeal to what is already an excellent opportunity.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate not only the size of the accommodation, but the quality of the setting and the sheer potential this wonderful detached home has to offer.
