Lead In

All Saints School House occupies a truly unique and historic position beside Pontefract Castle, forming an integral part of the town's rich heritage. This remarkable six-bedroom detached residence is bursting with character, charm, and individuality throughout — with a level of history and distinction that is exceptionally rare across the wider property market.

The property enjoys views over Pontefract Castle and All Saints Church, further enhancing its historic appeal. Offering substantial space, timeless character, and a one-of-a-kind layout, this exceptional residence must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Steeped in history, the home also benefits from original war shelters, believed to have been used by royalty during times of conflict, adding yet another fascinating layer to this already captivating property.

Internally, the ground floor boasts an impressive entertainment/party room complete with a snooker table, darts area, and bar — perfect for hosting. The heart of the home is the spectacular lounge, centred around an original brick-built fireplace, offering warmth and character in abundance. In addition, the property features a well-presented kitchen, a separate dining room, a practical utility room, and a dedicated office space, further enhancing its versatility for modern family living. The bedrooms are all generously sized and are complemented by well-appointed bathrooms, while modern décor and high-quality fixtures and fittings have been carefully maintained throughout.

The property is thoughtfully arranged across multiple sections, offering flexible accommodation to suit a wide range of buyers. A ground floor bedroom and bathroom provide convenient and accessible living, while the first floor reveals a truly striking feature — a stunning wooden bridge and glass balcony leading from the landing out to a beautifully landscaped rear garden, creating an unforgettable “wow factor.”

Externally, the property continues to impress with a block-paved driveway providing ample off-street parking, secure electric gates leading to a private rear courtyard, and a raised rear garden accessed directly from the first floor — a truly unique feature.

Rarely does a home of this calibre and heritage come to market, and it is offered for sale with no onward chain.
