SITUATION

The property is located in the heart of the popular town of Dulverton within Exmoor National Park. The town has a strong community and provides good day-to-day shopping together with two churches, post office, primary school, chemist, medical, dental and veterinary surgeries and a well-supported town hall. In addition, there are good restaurants and recreational facilities including squash courts, all-weather tennis courts, football and cricket pitches. The property is in a Conservation Area.

Just moments away, riverside walks along the River Barle provide an attractive natural setting and an immediate escape into the surrounding countryside.

Tiverton (14 miles) offers further shopping and entertainment facilities and the well-known Blundells School together with easy access to the M5 and mainline railway station at Tiverton Parkway. The county town of Taunton is 26 miles away. The university and cathedral city of Exeter (29 miles south) boasts a wealth of shopping, recreational and leisure facilities. To the east of the city, Exeter Airport offers national and international flights.

DESCRIPTION

8 Bank Square is a most attractive, deceptively spacious, period property set over two floors, located above what was the former bank, in the centre of the town. It enjoys a large level private walled garden in a "tucked away" setting.

A spacious hallway leads to the double aspect sitting room with feature fireplace fitted with electric fire with mantel over. Also on this level is the bathroom. Stairs rise to first floor with large walk-in cloaks cupboard under. On the first floor are two double bedrooms.

The large private walled garden is a particular feature of the property and is mainly laid to lawn with borders containing mature shrubs. There is a cobbled courtyard with steps rising to the lawn and a brick outhouse for storage.
