At the front of the house there is a large through reception room, which encompasses a reception and dining room, with french doors leading to the garden.

To the rear there is a large kitchen and family bathroom. There is still potential to increase the size of the kitchen by extending to the side.

The first floor is divided in to two generous double bedrooms, complete with a family bathroom. There is great potential on this first floor to loft extend to create a sizable principal bedroom and bathroom.
