This inviting three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a wonderful blend of comfort and countryside charm. Set on the edge of Epping Town, it enjoys a long garden that opens onto sweeping fields, while still being just a stroll from the High Street, Central Line station, and the scenic paths of Swaines Green. Off-street parking adds to the convenience, making this a perfect spot for both relaxation and easy access to local amenities.

Step inside to a welcoming hallway, where the front living room invites you to unwind beside a cozy fireplace and enjoy the warmth of wooden floors. The space flows seamlessly into a bright kitchen breakfast room, thoughtfully designed with plenty of room for family meals or morning coffee. From here, an inner hallway leads out to the gardens and to a stylish ground-floor bathroom with crisp white fittings. Upstairs, three comfortable bedrooms await, including a master with its own en-suite WC. The central landing offers access to both the remaining bedrooms and the loft, providing flexibility for growing families or those seeking extra storage.

Outside, the home welcomes you with a pretty front garden and practical off-street parking. A side gate opens to the rear, where a raised patio is perfect for summer gatherings or quiet evenings overlooking the countryside. The generous lawn stretches out to around 130 feet, bordered by a wooden shed and a secure motorbike store, all set against a backdrop of open fields that invite you to relax and enjoy the view.

Epping Town sits at the end of the Central Line, offering direct links into London while being surrounded by the natural beauty of Epping Forest. The bustling High Street is filled with shops, cafes, bars, and restaurants, creating a lively community atmosphere. For those who love the outdoors, the forest provides endless opportunities for walking, cycling, and horse riding. Excellent transport connections to the M11 and M25 make travel further afield just as easy.
