Epsom & Ewell West Station is just a short stroll away, with London Waterloo reachable in approximately 34 minutes, making commuting into the capital effortless.

Description

A welcoming entrance hall sets the tone from the moment you arrive, showcasing the home's high-quality finish and thoughtful design. A convenient cloakroom completes the ground floor. The upper floors continue to impress, offering a flexible layout ideal for modern family life. The first floor features two exceptionally generous 19ft bedrooms. The principal suite provides a peaceful retreat with its own stylish ensuite, while the second bedroom benefits from a charming Juliet balcony and an abundance of natural light. The second floor provides two further spacious double bedrooms, ideal for older children, guests or those working from home. One enjoys its own ensuite, while a contemporary family bathroom serves the remaining accommodation. Outside, the good-sized rear garden is fully enclosed and features a useful summer house. Two parking spaces and a garage further enhance the practicality of this exceptional family home.

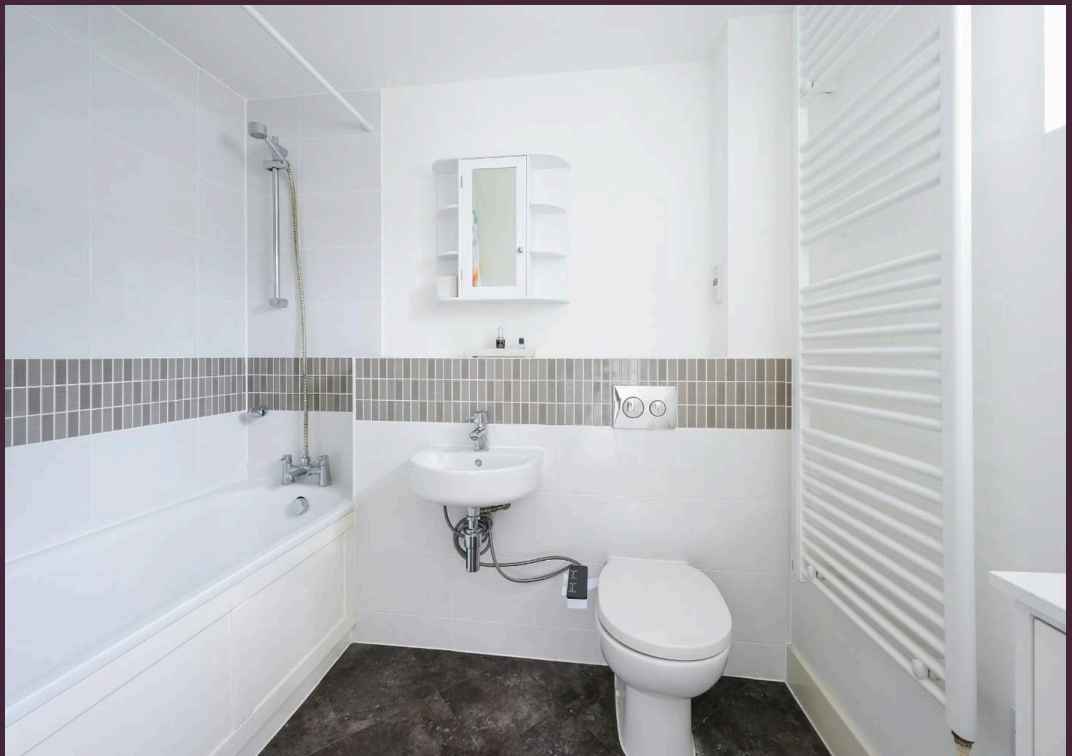

Epsom is a charming town offering an appealing balance of countryside tranquillity and everyday convenience, with leafy streets surrounding a vibrant town centre. The Ashley Centre, twice-weekly traditional market, independent cafés and restaurants provide plenty to enjoy, making the area particularly attractive to families and professionals. For leisure, there is an excellent choice of green spaces, including Horton Country Park, Epsom Common and the iconic Epsom Downs Racecourse, perfect for weekend walks, cycling and enjoying the outdoors. Epsom is also renowned for its excellent choice of schools, with well-regarded state options including Rosebery School, Glyn School, St Joseph's and Wallace Fields. Independent education is well represented by Epsom College, with Freeman's and Downsend also nearby. The University for the Creative Arts and Laine Theatre Arts add a vibrant creative dimension to the town. Transport links are excellent, with frequent direct trains from Epsom to London Victoria and Waterloo, with journey times of around 35–45 minutes. The M25 and A3 are easily accessible by road, while Heathrow and Gatwick airports are both approximately 35 minutes away.
