

Cotton Square, Claremont Road, Manchester

£995 PCM

A well-presented one bedroom, first floor apartment situated within Cotton Square, a popular development in a well-established residential area of Manchester.

The apartment offers a practical layout, with an open-plan living room and kitchen, a good-sized double bedroom and a modern bathroom. The property is furnished throughout, making it a straightforward and comfortable option for anyone looking for a home that's ready to move into.

Cotton Square is well positioned for access to Manchester city centre, while Manchester Royal Infirmary and the wider hospital campus are also within easy reach. There are a good range of local amenities nearby, with major road networks close by providing convenient links in and out of the city.

A good option for a student or professional looking for a well-located home with the convenience of city living, without being right in the middle of the city centre.
