VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Council Tax: G - Tenure: Freehold - EPC: TBC

The property stands within exceptionally well-maintained and established grounds extending to approximately 0.6 acres, enjoying a high degree of privacy in a peaceful semi-rural setting between Conwy and Henryd, yet within a five-minute drive of the historic walled town of Conwy.

The immaculately presented accommodation is rich in character, with exposed stonework and substantial timbers, together with impressive vaulted ceilings and exposed roof trusses to the first floor. These period details are complemented by thoughtfully designed modern additions, creating a distinctive and highly individual family home.

A particular feature is the purpose-built, self-contained one-bedroom annexe, ideal for a dependent relative, visiting family or guests. It may also offer potential for holiday letting, subject to obtaining all necessary planning consents and approvals.

The main residence benefits from oil-fired central heating and double glazing, while the annexe has its own LPG central heating system.
