

Mold Lodge Penbedw
Nannerch, Mold,
CH7 5QT

No Onward Chain
£275,000

A character detached lodge set in gardens with a small woodland and enjoying beautiful views towards the Penbedw Estate, near Nannerch. The Penbedw Estate was formerly owned by William Barber Buddicom, an established railway engineer, and the porch to the lodge still features a round tablet with the Buddicom monogram 'WMB' in raised letters. The property is a stone built single storey lodge with a basement and offers tremendous potential to improve and enhance. The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance porch with bench seat and quarry tile floor, living room with bay window overlooking the front and open fireplace, store room/small study, inner hallway, kitchen, bedroom one with exposed floorboards and built-in storage cupboards, bedroom two and a spacious bathroom with shower over the bath. The property benefits from oil fired central heating. Mold Lodge occupies a generous size plot extending to approximately 0.82 acres and is set within lawned gardens with driveway parking at the side and a woodland area. The property enjoys spectacular views to the rear over surrounding countryside and is located within the Clwydian Range & Dee Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). There is no onward chain involved in the sale of this property. The property would benefit from some updating and would make an ideal project for those looking to create a unique rural home.

GRADE II LISTING

Penbedw was a Georgian country house purchased by William Barber Buddicom, an established railway engineer, in 1852. Improvements were made to the park soon after, including Mold Lodge and its adjacent gateway, which formed one of the main entrances to the park. The lodge is shown on the 1871 Ordnance Survey. The main house was demolished in 1958.

A single-storey lodge with basement, comprising an L-shaped plan of main range with wing to the L, with porch clasped in the angle of the 2, and a short rear wing. Of sneaked dressed stone and slate roof with stone stacks to the L-hand and rear wings. The asymmetrical porch has a splayed entrance and a parapet raised up above a round tablet with the Buddicom monogram 'WMB' in raised letters. The entrance has a shouldered lintel, and inside is a boarded door to the wing. On the wider R-hand facet is a small lintelled window, with a 2-pane sash window to the main range further R. The L-hand wing has, in its gable end, a canted bay window incorporating a pair of 2-pane sashes. The R gable end of the main range and the gable end of the rear wing also have paired 2-pane sash windows. At the rear, a lean-to in the angle with the main range has a boarded door in its end wall, to the R of which the main range has a segmental-headed basement door. Listed as a well-preserved C19 lodge retaining original character in a prominent location.
