The apartment benefits from abundant natural light and spectacular Thames views, with Canary Wharf's iconic skyline creating a dramatic backdrop. The private balcony serves as an elevated sanctuary, perfect for morning coffee while watching the river traffic or evening relaxation as the city lights reflect on the water. The thoughtfully designed interior maximises the 773 square feet of living space, creating a comfortable and stylish home.

Residents enjoy exclusive access to onsite leisure facilities, ensuring convenience and wellbeing are prioritised. The 24-hour concierge service provides security and assistance, while the beautifully maintained communal grounds offer peaceful outdoor spaces away from the bustling city. These premium amenities create a hotel-like living experience within your own home.

Transport connections are exceptional, with Cutty Sark DLR and Greenwich National Rail stations providing swift access to Canary Wharf, the City, and central London, while the Thames Clipper service adds a scenic commuting option along the river.
