Cranleigh

The front-to-back reception room is a large room with bifold doors to the rear, and there is a second reception room/snug with additional office space, and access to a rear living room/guest bedroom and a contemporary bathroom with luxurious walk-in steam room/shower with ceiling rain shower creating a true spa-like experience at home. This living room/bedroom/bathroom could easily be used as its own annexe space.

The staircase leading to the first floor landing has glass inset balustrades, and the rear aspect principal bedroom enjoys the privacy of an ensuite shower/wet room, while the remaining bedrooms are generously sized and well-appointed. There are three further double bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes, and a family shower room with stylish ceramic tiling and underfloor heating.

The rear garden has been fully landscaped with a full-width porcelain-tiled terrace, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, with steps and a path crossing an attractive lawn to a secluded rear seating area which provides a tranquil retreat. The garden also benefits full remotely operated zoned lighting. This wonderful garden has part walled surround and stylish panelling with mature shrubs and border planting.

There is access to a double garage from the garden which has an electric up and over door, and a side access gate to a driveway.

Further benefits are newly fitted Anglian double glazed windows throughout, a utility room with space for washing machine and tumble dryer, landing linen cupboard, and a serviced central heating boiler.

To the front of the house is a generous driveway providing parking for 8-10 cars and a side passage with a rear garden gate and space for a shed.

There is a Eucalyptus tree and Chestnut tree at the front which gives the house its name.
