SITUATION

Maidencombe is only 10 minutes away from the centre of Torquay, and Teignmouth with its lovely safe sandy beaches is approximately the same distance. Both towns offer a rich variety of daytime and evening entertainment, with many Restaurants offering some of the best cuisines in Torbay.

The hamlet of Maidencombe (mentioned in the Domesday Book, 1086) is on the most northerly reach of Torbay. Torbay is relatively densely populated and yet Maidencombe, still a part of Torbay, remains rural with a backdrop of farmland and facing North/East stretches down to the wonderfully rich Devon sandstone cliffs which overlook the sea and Lyme Bay.

Maidencombe is also on the coastal path route enjoyed by many on holiday and is controlled by the local authorities as an area of preservation and managed by the Torbay Coast and Countryside Trust. Maidencombe has always been popular with residents of Torbay and this naturally attracts visitors who appreciate nature, views, walks and the country style of life, yet are within striking distance of a decent sized town.

Torquay is less than 4 miles away, which can be reached either on foot, via the coast path (recommended for walkers) by car or by bus, passing through St. Marychurch and Babbacombe on the way.

There are numerous beautiful Devon villages in the surrounding area as well as stunning country and coastal walks. The rural splendour of Dartmoor with its walking, horse riding etc, is only a half hour car journey away.
