An exciting opportunity has arisen to acquire The Tushielaw Inn which is situated in the heart of the stunning Ettrick Valley with beautiful views. Having been upgraded in recent years, the country inn offers both letting rooms and separate owners' accommodation in addition to a bright and spacious bar and dining room and outside beer garden and garden grounds/paddock. There is scope for the creation of a building plot on the garden ground subject to relevant planning permissions being obtained

LOCATION: Situated in the midst of the Scottish Borders countryside enjoying a wonderful sense of community, the Tushielaw Inn is located only a short drive from the beautiful market towns of Melrose and Selkirk with their independent shops and traders. Further amenities can be found in the larger nearby towns of Hawick and Galashiels, with Tweedbank providing a rail connection to Edinburgh. The surrounding countryside and rolling hills are popular with golfers, walkers, cyclists and equestrian enthusiasts and the rural location will appeal to those with an interest in country pursuits looking for a peaceful break away. St Marys Loch is also located within the immediate area and is always well received by paddle boarders and boating enthusiasts.

The Tushielaw Inn is a striking historic Victorian coaching inn dating from around the 1850s arranged over three levels. Situated on the ground floor level is the public lounge and bar area with dining space which is well presented in countryside style and there are ladies and gent's customer WCs. A carpeted stair leads up the first floor landing where three generous guest letting bedrooms afford lovely open views and each has a private en suite bathroom. Located on the lower ground floor is the well equipped commercial kitchen with various store rooms and cellars. The owner's accommodation, which has a private and separate entrance, offers four additional bedrooms, sitting room and bathroom. Ideal for staff/owners staying on site.
