Tenure: Freehold

Tucked away in the market town of Dursley, this beautifully presented terraced cottage on Silver Street has been completely and tastefully renovated in 2025, offering a perfect blend of modern living and traditional character. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a stylishly designed kitchen, featuring an integral oven and hob with an extractor, as well as an integral fridge/freezer. The granite work surfaces and inset sink with a mixer tap add a touch of elegance to this functional space.

The staircase, adorned with oak and glass balustrades, leads you to the inviting sitting room, where wood flooring and ample natural light create a warm and welcoming atmosphere. This room also provides access to the second floor, where you will find a contemporary shower room. The shower room is equipped with a corner shower cubicle, complete with both rainfall and hand-held shower options, alongside a wc and a wash hand basin set in stylish units, complemented by a touch-screen mirror.
