For Sale by Online Public auction 24th June in partnership with TCPA.

A characterful two-bedroom cottage set in a rural location on the edge of a North Wales village, enjoying countryside views while remaining well connected to Bangor, the A55, and Snowdonia.

The property combines traditional features with modern living, offering a spacious open-plan lounge and dining area with a wood-burning stove, fitted kitchen, and a contemporary ground floor bathroom. Upstairs are two comfortable double bedrooms.

Outside, there are low-maintenance garden areas, a storage outbuilding, and off-road parking. The home also benefits from double glazing and partial electric heating.

Located close to local amenities in Pentir and Rhiwlas, this property is ideal for first-time buyers or investors. Offered with no onward chain, it presents a great opportunity to personalise.
