A genuine change of circumstances forces a reluctant sale of this much loved end of terrace modern home. Having been lovingly updated by the vendors within very recent years, the property represents an excellent opportunity for the new purchaser to acquire what is a delightful home in a semi-rural setting in a ready to move in condition.

Benefitting from renewed kitchen and bathrooms along with a fully re-decorated interior and new floor coverings, this is a home which is not only low maintenance internally, the gravelled rear garden/yard also keeps down work externally whilst allowing the potential to develop this further.

Externally, there is allocated parking to the rear with plenty of on-street parking to the front, in addition, on what is a very quiet road.

KILHAM

Nestling in a sheltered valley at the heart of the Yorkshire Wolds, Kilham was once an important market town, larger than Driffield, which held annual trading fairs. Standing in a commanding position at the heart of the village conservation area, All Saints Church dates back to the Norman period and overlooks Ye Olde Star Inn and Restaurant.
