HARRIS & BIRT

A unique and attractive bungalow tucked away in a private leafy cul-de-sac of just three properties off Cog Road in the highly desirable village of Sully. The spacious accommodation is highly versatile and is conveniently set across one floor, briefly comprising: entrance hall, WC, open plan kitchen & family room, utility room, dining room, study and living room, with a rear hall connecting to the master bedroom with en suite, a further three double bedrooms, family bathroom and a steam room. Outside enjoys the benefit of driveway parking for multiple vehicles, front garden with an attractive archway leading through to wrap around patio and rear garden. A sizeable heated swimming pool and timber pool house are also a bonus, and the property enjoys lovely views of the Church to the rear.

Situated within the coastal village of Sully, which has excellent walks to the beach and a designated coastal path and is just a short drive from Cosmeston Lakes as well as Penarth town, which in recent years has been voted by readers of the “Sunday Times” as the best place to live in Wales. Schools in both Sully and Penarth are held in particular high regard, and whilst the property is in the catchment for Sully Primary School, which feeds into Stanwell Secondary School, there is also a private school in Penarth (Westbourne House) which caters for children between the ages of 5 and 18. The property is within close proximity to major centres including Cardiff, Cowbridge, Bridgend, Barry and the M4 corridor.
