The ground floor welcomes you via an inviting entrance hall with the original front door, parquet flooring and elegant stained glass detailing. The family room offers a cosy yet refined space, complete with a recessed gas fireplace and French doors opening onto a substantial wrap-around rear terrace. A separate formal dining room, adorned with wall panelling and a charming mahogany fireplace, provides an ideal setting for hosting.

At the heart of the home is a superb kitchen/diner designed around an integrated double range cooker and a restored original dresser, and fitted with bespoke solid wood kitchen units, with granite worktops and a classic butler sink. The room benefits from a double-aspect layout, with doors leading directly to the terrace from the dining area, and is complemented by a separate utility room.

The second entrance hall provides a downstairs cloakroom and direct access to the main entertaining areas, including the feature drawing room with 10' ceilings and two square bay windows to the front and rear with stained glass detailing. A beautiful original fireplace with a wood-burning stove creates a warm focal point.

Externally, the property is nestled within a 1/3 of an acre and enjoys a substantial rear garden with a 90sqm paved wrap-around terrace. Extensive level lawns, bordered by mature trees and shrubs - perfect for family life.
