The Old School, Main Street

Southorpe, PE9 3BX

A substantial stone period home originally dating back to the 1870's, The Old School is situated adjacent to open fields on the edge of this semi rural village positioned in rolling countryside. The current vendors have transformed the accommodation using a local and highly regarded builder and architect to skilfully blend the original character and street view with a superb wrap around extension for modern day expectations, making the most of the private open aspect with floor to ceiling glass and sliding doors to the rear and side over looking open fields. The porchway opens to a spacious entrance hall and inner hall with cloakroom and utility off. The 'new lounge' is currently used as a gym with underfloor heating, 3 lanterns giving plenty of light and sliding doors to the outside patio area. In addition, there is a shower room off. A separate sitting room has a cosy feel with an open fire. A stunning L shaped open plan kitchen dining and living room wraps around the back of the property with designated areas. The kitchen area has polished concrete work surfaces, a huge central island with an overhang for bar seating, comprehensive range of storage cupboards and appliances and an electric 4 oven Aga. The floor to ceiling picture windows, French Doors and sliding doors by the dining area allows plenty of natural light, overlooking the open aspects. The living area has a more cosy feel with stone fireplace and wood burning stove. There are two bedrooms off the spacious landing area, with steps up to an inner landing with guest bedroom with ensuite shower, further double bedroom with wardrobes, and family bathroom. The master suite has picture windows overlooking the open aspect, dressing room, 4 piece bathroom and study with spiral stairs, further office space/games room. Large patio areas for entertaining, steps down to private gardens. Gravel off road parking and garaging.
