Plenty of features to look out for, aspects too from this sunken patio area as well as to the secure garden areas. (Access from both the utility room and the front 'dining room' leads to the garden).

The kitchen has a central island which doubles as a breakfast bar for your guests.

The first floor shower room together with the en suite is on the first or ground floor, the main shower room is on the second. All rooms are comparatively similar and nicely sized for family accommodation; the gardens too, as have indicated, surprisingly generous for a central Oxtun village location. A two or three minute walk to the parade of village shops, Post Office and bars - so convenient..... but not too close! Sat Nav: CH43 5TH
