DESCRIPTION

A beautifully presented and characterful home, 51 Smithfields offers an appealing blend of period charm and modern versatility, with the added benefit of a self-contained annexe ideal for income generation or multi-generational living.

The property has been thoughtfully improved by the current owners, creating a warm and welcoming interior with a natural flow between living spaces, complemented by light-filled rooms and attractive outlooks over the gardens. Of particular note is the flexibility afforded by the lower ground floor accommodation, which is entirely self-contained and accessed independently, offering excellent potential as a rental or guest suite. The gardens are a true highlight, combining established planting with a series of seating areas that provide a delightful setting for both relaxation and entertaining.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is entered via a front door into a hallway, with stairs rising to the first floor and a useful understairs cupboard. From here, a door leads into a cosy snug positioned to the front of the house. Continuing through the hallway, the space opens into a dining area which flows naturally into the kitchen, fitted with a range of units and work surfaces. Beyond, the accommodation extends into a spacious sitting room at the rear, enjoying a pleasant outlook over the garden and providing an excellent principal reception space.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, including a well-proportioned principal bedroom, together with two further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The lower ground floor provides a self-contained studio-style annexe, accessed independently from the garden. This versatile space includes a bedroom/living area with adjoining shower room and offers excellent potential for ancillary accommodation or income generation.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via steps leading down from Plymouth Road to the front entrance. The front garden is a particularly attractive feature, enhanced by mature planting and a striking wisteria that adds seasonal colour and charm.

To the rear, the garden has been thoughtfully arranged to provide a variety of usable spaces. Immediately adjoining the annexe is a patio area, ideal for outdoor seating. This leads onto a lawned garden, interspersed with established planting and complemented by a garden bar, creating a sociable and relaxed environment. To the far end of the garden is a further decking area, providing an additional seating space and a pleasant outlook back towards the house.
