The Property

Introducing No.18 Caenbrook Meadow, which is a well maintained, 3 bedroom, semi-detached house situated in a quiet and sought after cul-de-sac towards the fringes of the popular market town of Presteigne (Llanandras), close to the Welsh/English border, which in 2025 was once again named as one of the best small towns to live in by The Sunday Times.

Originally built circa 1980's, No.18 Caenbrook Meadow has been carefully looked after by the current owner over many years, including the addition of UPVC double glazed windows and external doors and now offers a fantastic opportunity for a new owner to personalise to their own taste. The property also presents the exciting opportunity to potentially increase its footprint further by way of a side extension, similar to neighbouring properties and subject to all necessary permissions.

Inside, the accommodation spans across 2 floors and is made up of an entrance hall, spacious living room with a feature fireplace, separate dining room with patio doors leading out to the rear garden, kitchen and a useful ground floor WC. The kitchen houses the 'Worcester' boiler and has a handy larder cupboard, while under stair storage is accessed from the living room. Upstairs, a landing area gives way to the shower room and the 3 bedrooms, 2 of which are comfortable doubles, while the third bedroom lends itself well as a nursery or a study. From the first floor, distant countryside views to the rear are on offer.

Outside, the property enjoys a generous plot, with a gravelled driveway to the front providing ample off road parking. A side wooden gate allows access to the west-facing rear garden, which is mainly laid to lawn and complemented by well stocked, planted borders, fenced boundaries and a paved patio area, perfect for relaxing or entertaining during the warmer months. The garden also enjoys a pleasant outlook across neighbouring properties towards the distant woodland/countryside.

Location-wise, No.18 Caenbrook Meadow offers the best of both town and country living and is conveniently situated approximately 1/4 of a mile from the vibrant town centre with its many independently owned shops and facilities, while in contrast and within a few minutes walk, you will find yourself roaming along quiet country lanes surrounded by fields and enjoying views across the rolling hills.

Overall, No.18 Caenbrook Meadow could be an ideal dwelling for a variety of buyer types including first time buyers, young families seeking additional space or downsizing purchasers looking to be closer to the town centre facilities.

The Town

Presteigne sits alongside the River Lugg, at the corner of the three counties of Shropshire, Herefordshire and Powys, within a short drive to Hay-On-Wye, Hereford, Ludlow and Shrewsbury, surrounded by beautiful, unspoilt countryside, perfect for walking and cycle rides. Just to the west are Radnor Forest and Offa's Dyke. Go slightly south west and you can browse the book shops of Hay-On-Wye, and to the east you can sample the renowned culinary delights of Ludlow. Hereford, with its Cathedral, is 26 miles away and in between there are activities and places to visit to satisfy a whole variety of tastes. The High Street, most unusually these days, has a good range of individual shops, restaurants, pubs, hotel and services. Throughout the year the senses are served with a range of musical and arts based events. The Presteigne Music Festival is a prestigious and internationally renowned regular event and throughout the year other musical events provide a rich and eclectic menu. There is a calendar of high quality art exhibitions throughout the year, whilst the Church of St Andrew's permanently houses its own treasure, a 16th century Flemish Tapestry.

The Judge's Lodging museum, a Georgian Court House complete with cells, courtroom and living quarters, has been classed as Britain's Best Hidden Gem. The town is home to educational facilities to suit all ages, Presteigne Primary School is under a mile away and the newly reformed John Beddoes Campus provides secondary education up to GCSE level, acting as a campus of Newtown High School. Sports clubs in the area are renowned after various successes across Wales, including Presteigne Saint Andrew's Football Club, Presteigne Bowling Club, Cricket Club and a ladies Hockey Team.

Further educational facilities are available within the area, which include many highly regarded private primary and secondary schools including Hereford Cathedral School, Lucton School just outside Leominster, Moor Park just outside Ludlow and Christ College in Brecon. There are 6 separate colleges including Newtown College, Hereford College of Arts, Herefordshire & Ludlow College, The National School of Blacksmithing (the oldest established Blacksmithing college in the UK), Hereford Sixth Form College and The Royal National College for the Blind, which is one of the top colleges in Europe for blind and visually impaired students.
