THE PROPERTY

Kemerton is a very attractive, individual detached bungalow, enjoying a superb elevated position with lovely views over the surrounding countryside and village towards the sea. It was built for the last owners in 1973 and under the current ownership since 2015 the bungalow has been subject to comprehensive enlargement, alteration and refurbishment, together with extensive external landscaping, to a very high standard. The bungalow has natural stone and colour-washed rendered elevations with low maintenance PVC fascias/soffits.

The accommodation is very light, well proportioned and well presented with many of the rooms taking advantage of the outstanding views.

The many excellent features include gas-fired central heating with a combi boiler, uPVC sealed unit windows/doors, well equipped modern kitchen with contemporary units and appliances (Smeg slot-in gas cooker/electric oven and AEG cooker hood), plus plumbing for dishwasher, attractive modern cloakroom, bathroom and shower room fittings, water softener and built-in wardrobes to the principal bedroom.

The well planned accommodation comprises – Large pillared stone porch, reception hall with comprehensive range of cupboards and pull-down ladder to large attic, cloakroom featuring sky tube, living room with wood burner and French doors to adjoining terrace, kitchen/dining room, utility, principal bedroom with fully tiled en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms, fully tiled bathroom/shower room with large separate walk-in shower with mains mixer.

OUTSIDE

Kemerton is set well back from the lane and approached onto a large tarmac driveway with turning and parking area leading to the attached garage with remote control roller door.

The front gardens are good sized and well screened, being down to lawn together with a whole range of shrubs and large adjoining paved terrace. Pedestrian access with gates to both sides. The rear garden is, again, good sized and enjoys the views across the Bride Valley and Burton Bradstock to the sea beyond. Attractively laid out and very well stocked with good privacy. Immediately adjoining is a raised paved terrace with steps down to large expanses of lawn interspersed with a wide variety of trees and shrubs wood store.

SITUATION

Kemerton is well situated, backing onto fields in the popular area of Shipton Lane, within easy reach of the village centre, open countryside and Hive Beach. Burton Bradstock lies on the coast and is considered to be one of the most sought after villages in West Dorset. It is a conservation village and the picturesque centre consists largely of stone and thatched cottages, for which the area is particularly well known. The excellent above average amenities include a shop/garage, Post Office, library, public houses, church, village hall, primary school and bus services. There is also the very popular and well known Hive Beach, which forms part of the stunning Jurassic Coast. The immediate locality is designated as one of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) and much of the coastline is either owned or controlled by the National Trust. There are nearby footpaths giving easy access to open countryside, down to the village, beach and to the clifftops.

The thriving historic market town of Bridport and the coastal resort of West Bay, with its 18-hole golf course, are both within easy reach. The stunning coastal road is also nearby, giving easy access to the larger towns of Dorchester and Weymouth, both with mainline rail services to London.
