Positioned behind wrought-iron gates there is a driveway that leads up to the bungalow. Running alongside the driveway is a large front garden laid to slate chipping and flower beds and enclosed by mature hedging providing a wonderfully private plot. The bungalow sits elevated from the road and is entered through a porch that in turn leads into a welcoming hallway with turning staircase leading to the converted loft. A large living room sits at the front of the bungalow with two large windows overlooking the gardens at the front and a modern fireplace with wood-burning stove. The kitchen sits at the foot of the hallway and opens into a conservatory that benefits from a tiled roof making it a more practical and year-round space. Three double bedrooms sit off the entrance hall, with the largest of the three boasting another log-burning fireplace set within bespoke fitted cabinetry. The family bathroom boasts a four piece suite comprising shower, bath, WC and wash hand basin. Two storage cupboards complete the ground floor. The loft conversion offers two brilliant loft rooms providing super storage options and built-in desks and drawers. Natural light is allowed in via multiple skylights.

Externally the rear gardens boasts a detached garage with electrics. The garden is a fabulous space with mature hedging and flowers- a gardeners dream!
