A beautifully presented and evidently well cared for three bedroom detached home, quietly tucked away in the corner of this highly regarded village cul-de-sac. 18 Dysons Close is a property that immediately gives a strong sense of quality, care and practicality, offering bright, well balanced accommodation that will suit a wide range of buyers, from young families through to downsizers seeking a central yet peaceful setting. The ground floor is arranged particularly well for day-to-day living, with a welcoming entrance hall, cloakroom WC and a kitchen breakfast room positioned to the front of the house, creating a practical and sociable space in which to start the day. To the rear, the house opens into a full width sitting room, a wonderfully light principal reception space with ample room in which to relax and unwind, flowing naturally through to a separate dining area that enjoys a lovely connection with the garden beyond. This arrangement gives the property an excellent sense of space and makes it equally well suited to quiet evenings at home or entertaining family and friends. Upstairs, the first floor provides three well proportioned bedrooms together with a smartly appointed shower room, all presented in a manner that reflects how carefully the house has been maintained over the years. Altogether, this is a home that feels tidy, balanced and immediately comfortable, while still offering the reassuring practicality so often sought yet increasingly hard to find in such a central village position.

Outside, the property continues to impress. The rear garden is enclosed, attractively arranged and designed to be both appealing and easy to enjoy, with areas laid to lawn, established shrub planting and a neat, well tended feel throughout. Backing onto an area of green space, the garden benefits from a particularly pleasant sense of privacy and separation, adding greatly to the overall enjoyment of the outside space. It is a garden that feels safe, enclosed and manageable, equally suited to children, keen gardeners or those simply looking for a peaceful spot in which to sit and enjoy the warmer months. In addition, there is a useful storage shed and a garage with power and light, together with driveway parking, ensuring the property functions just as well externally as it does internally. The front approach is equally neat and well kept, reinforcing the impression of a house that has been genuinely loved and carefully looked after.

Dysons Close is a particularly sought after cul-de-sac within Yatton, prized for its peaceful setting and outstanding convenience to the heart of the village. From here, the local shopping precinct, bakers, hairdressers and day-to-day amenities are all close at hand, while Yatton railway station remains a major draw for commuters requiring direct links to Bristol, Bath, London and the West Country. The village continues to prove especially popular with buyers seeking a strong sense of community combined with practical accessibility, and families are well served by nearby primary schooling, with secondary education available at Backwell School.

In all, 18 Dysons Close is an exceptionally tidy and well positioned village home, combining quality, comfort and a tucked away central setting that is always in strong demand.
