A communal entrance hall with period features is the main entrance to the building. The property is entered via a private entrance door to the lower ground floor, which welcomes you into an entrance hall with useful storage cupboard.

The open plan living kitchen boasts modern grey fitted units, electric cooker and ceramic hob with extractor fan and space and plumbing for further appliances such as fridge/freezer or washing machine. A beautiful exposed brick breakfast bar provides a fantastic area for informal dining. Built in shelves in the living room offer plenty of storage space. Sash windows overlook the courtyard, flooding the living area with natural lighting.

To the front elevation of the property is the good-sized bedroom, which is neutrally decorated and benefits from having high windows to allow in plenty of light.

The property's bathroom consists of a low flush WC, pedestal hand wash basin, panelled bathtub and separate shower.

Externally, the property fronts onto St Marys, a quiet residential street just off Bootham. A forecourt sits to the front with pleasant plants and shrubs. A shared outdoor area offers a peaceful place to relax in the warmer months.

Just minutes away from York Minster, this property provides impeccable access into York City Centre and the train station. Perfect for those working in York City Centre or who visit regularly an early viewing at this property is advised.
