Jenkinson Estates are pleased to bring to the market this deceptively spacious detached bungalow situated in the semi-rural location of Ashley, Kent. This bungalow, Cottage Pie, is accessed via a sloped paved driveway offering ample parking and a laid to lawn front garden. The property itself is accessed via an porch that opens into an entrance hallway which leads to the living accommodation and bedrooms. The living space is impressive with a bay-fronted sitting room, complete with a log burning stove and a spacious kitchen / dining room, which offers a great space for family dining. The property also benefits from a study, which gives access to a conservatory and opens to the rear garden. The accommodation is completed with a family bathroom and a separate shower room. Externally there are well maintained gardens to rear which offers patio areas and are also laid to lawn. There is also detached garden room/studio which benefits from having a cast iron woodburning stove and also benefits from a kitchenette and shower room. The property has an oiled fired central heating system and is double glazed. The property has cesspit drainage and also benefits from solar panels, which are owner owned, and have a "feed in tariff". All viewings are though the appointed Sole Agents Jenkinson Estates.
